The Democrats seem to be much alive in and about this village, meeting at Forty Corners last week, at Crystal Spring this week, and will meet at Mc-Donaldsville next week, and a great deal of free lager seems to jolly the boys up. The Republicans are probably too overconfident. Eternal vigilance is the price of victory at the polls."

A vote for Eli Doll for land appraiser of Perry township means a vote for a man who is well qualified to serve the taxpayers in an intelligent manner. A lifelong farmer, well posted in all affairs pertaining to his calling, and of strict integrity, one would seek far and wide for a better man for the place.

For Infirmary Director,

ANDREW REESE.

A substantial farmer, a man always identified with movements tending to the welfare of the community, for twenty years elected by his neighbors as jus tice of the peace, a voter of the Republi can ticket for thirty-five years, and for fourteen years a member of the Repub lican county committee-such is the brief record of Andrew Reese, of Washington township, the Republican candidate for infirmary director, and it is a record to be proud of. Mr. Reese has never before been a candidate for county office, and he deserves the support of the party he has so ably served in the

The re-election of T. Harvey Smith as treasurer of Stark county is a foregone conclusion. Mr. Smith has made a record that is a credit to himself and to his party, and will be among the leaders on the ticket when the returns come in. The strength of Mr. Smith's position is shown by the fact that there was not a Democrat in the county at the time of ors. the primary election who was willing to be this competitor. For the benefit of those interested. It can be stated that Eli L. Motts, a resident of Minerva, is now Mr. Smith's opponent, having nobly stepped into the breach when all hope failed and allowed himself to become the Democratic figurehead. Mr. Motts ers. is practically unknown, and there is no possible reason why he should be elected.

Every Republican in Stark county should vote for Joseph B. Summer for county commissioner. A bitter fight is being made against him by the workhouse ring, because he has at all times dren. opposed the senseless extravagance of toat institution, and Superintendent Pontius is charged with having heelers ditions in workshops and factories. at work all over the county in an effort to defeat him. It sweeps aside the last vestige of uncertainty regarding his attitude toward the Republican party, and brings new assurance of a complete Republican victory on November 7.

POMERENE'S HIGH PLAY.

It is much to be regretted that the friends of Atlee Pomerene, Democratic candidate for prosecuting attorney, should not have warned him that an at- | year? tempt on his part to smirch the honor of one of the most popular residents of Stark county, Judge William R. Day, for campaign purposes would meet with speedy and deserved rebuke at the hands of his constituents. Not having been warned, and being in something of a panic, this is just what Mr. Pomerene has done. The Alliance Leader, inspired by him, asserted in a recent issue that Robert H. Day, the Republican candidate, voted for a Democrat in 1895; held "the whole Day family" responsible for this political treason, and then went on to say that in view of "the support the Day family has received at the hands of the party" the fact that one of its members has ever worked against the regular Republican ticket is sufficient to take from him that party's support.

Of course it is unnecessary to say that Robert H. Day never tried to defeat a Republican candidate-the Leader's lie is self evident-but if he had done such a thing it would only be in line with what Mr. Pomerene is now asking of the Republican voters of the county. The Democratic candidate in making etc. Attorney R. A. REPUBLICAN LABOR LAWS.

A noticeable feature in the speeches made during the campaign by Samuel M. Jones, is the fact that he invariably criticises and denounces the Republican party, but has not a word to say against the Democratic party. While on every occasion he has been bitter in his denunciation of the Republican party, especially in its attitude toward the work ingmen, intelligent workingmen know, and all others should know, that praclatures. Among the long list are the following:

"The Republicans, through their commissioner, General Raum, put a liberal construction upon that act, and under the latter's rulings and during his administration, old soldiers and their widows received the benefits of the act, according to the intentions of Congress. When Cleveland again came into power, however, smarting under rebukes from the Republicans, he undertook to undo, and in a great measure did undo, what had been done for old soldiers in the Harrison administration. Hoke Smith and General Lochren, in their administration of the affairs of the pension department, put such a construction on the act of June 27, 1890, as to, in great measure, rob soldiers and their wives and orphans of the benefits conferred thereby. There was an arbitrary revision of the whole system of rating; persions were cut from $12 to $6 per mouthunder the ruling that a man must be entirely and absolutely unable to perform any manual labor for his own support before he could receive the $12 per month allowed by the act."

And thus under this Democratic administration the old soldiers, who had been rescued from pauperism by the ter being stripped of their pensions. 1 know that since the Republicans have again come into power they have not undone all which the Democrats did against the old soldier, but they have reversed a great many of the rulings of Hoke Smith and Gen. Lochren, and the only thing that the Democrats now complain of is that the Republican administratration has failed to remedy all the ills that were caused by the rudings and acts of their own administration. They now come out with this circular for the purpose of showing, if indeed it shows anything, that old soldiers have been mistreated by a Republican administration, when the fact remains, as I have stated, that the wrong now suffered by pensioners was caused by the arbitrary and unwarranted rulings of Hoke Smith and Gen. Lochren. When Lochren was cutting off old soldiers pensions during the hard times of the Cleveland administration, and consigning veterans and widows of veterans to almshouses, Democratic politicans had no word of comfort to utter, and they would not now "champion" the cause of coming election, which must be obtained by any means.

the Candidates.

ALL GOOD MENAND TRUE.

With One Exception They are All Natives of Stark County, and are Men of High Standing-Not a Man of Them Should be Scratched Next Tuesday.

The following brief biographical sketches of the candidates on the Republican ticket, contain much information of interest. With the exception of Mr. Day, the candidate for prosecuting attorney, they were al! born in this country and have lived here all their lives, excepting such time as several of them were serving their country in the war of the rebellion. All have been workers, teaching school, farming, mining, etc., and each man is well fitted to perform the duties of the office to which he aspires. THE INDEPENDENT is indebted to the Repository, of Canton, for the portraits of the legislative candidates used.

GEORGE W. WILHELM,

Candilate for state senator, was born in Wilmot, this county, in 1847, and has been a resident of the county all his life. T. HARVEY SMITH,

Candidate for re-election as county treasurer, was born in West Brookfield, and is 39 years of age. In his early youth he worked at farming and in the mines during the summer months, at tending school in the winter, and when 19 years old began teaching, following in the footsteps of his father, the late John Smith, whose name as a successful teacher was a household word in all western Stark county. For a number of years he was principal of the East street school in this city, meeting with great success, and resigned to accept a position as deputy under County Treasurer Geib. He had no opposition for the nomination for treasurer in 1897, and at the election received a majority of 1,970. This year he had no opponent for the nomination, and his election by an overwhelming majority is assured.

JOHN J. ZAISER,

Candidate for re-election to the office of sheriff, was born on a farm near Limaville, this county, fifty-five years ago his father and mother having come from Germany. When 18 years of age Mr. Zaiser enlisted in the One Hundred and Fifteenth O. V. I., and served in all the campaigns in which his regiment took part until 1864, when he was captured by the Canfederates and taken to Andersonville, where he suffered all the horrors of that notorious prison until April, 1865, when he was exchanged. Willison, under the firm name of Willison & Day. Mr. Day has never before been a candidate for any office, and the active part he has always taken in the interest of the Republican party entitles him to hearty support.

MAURICE E. AUNGST, Candidate for probate judge, was born in Plain township, and has served as deputy in the probate court throughout the administration of two judges. At the age of 16 he began teaching in the district schools of his native township, working on the farm during the summer months, and in 1884 completed a literary course at the Ada normal school. ANDREW REESE, Candidate for infirmary director, is a native of Stark county, and is one of the substantial farmers and business men of Washington township. For twenty years or more he has been a justice of the peace, a fact which shows his popularity in his lown community, and has been a lifelong Republican. That not all are for consumption, as the trade is naturally tempted to believe, may be true, and yet actual purchases by the mills of half that quantity would imply extraordinary encouragement respecting the demand for woolen goods. The prices have been generally advanced to an average scarcely below that of May, 1892, and for Ohio washed, light and dark unwashed, and pulled wool slightly higher-Expectation of higher prices at London prompt much speculative buying, but the demand for woolen goods is also undeniably encouraging.

Prices of pigiron for early deliveries are still advancing, but as a great part of the demand has protected itself by contracts running far into next year, including purchases of 50,000 tons Bessemer this week at $23.50 and as biliets are quoted at $39.50 for spot but $35 for next year, the market can be interpreted several ways. Anthracite pig is also quoted at $24.50 for early delivery, and local coke at Chicago. JEFFRIES HOLDS TITLE

Sharkey Unable to Wrest the Championship From Him.

SAILOR FOUGHT FINE BATTLE.

The Champion Had the Advantage In the First Two and Last Three Rounds. In the Other Twenty Sharkey Fought Like a Bull Terrier.

New York, Nov. 4.—James J. Jeffries retains the championship of the world, Referee George Siler giving him the decision at the end of the twenty-fifth round over Sailor Tom Sharkey, at the Coney Island Sporting club. It was one of the most marvelous battles that has ever taken place, and the greatest crowd that ever gathered in the Coney Island clubhouse witnessed the desperate struggle for supremacy.

In five rounds Jeffries had the better of the fight, in the first two and in the last three. During the other 20 Sharkey forced the issue, and like a bull terrier was at his man with both hands unceasingly.

In those 20 rounds Jeffries' great weight and brawn helped him to hold off the sailor, and in the twenty-second round he swung in a couple of vicious uppercuts that made Sharkey groggy. Tom came back again in the twentyfourth and twenty-fifth, but he was weakened greatly by Jeffries' vicious blows. One minute before the gong sounded to end the fight Jeffries left glove came off, and practically the con-

Sharkey had to be frequently cautioned for fouling and Jeffries but once. The most decisive rounds were these:

Twenty-second round-They moved cautiously and Jeffries was first to land, sending right to body. Then he sent a straight lett to face and Sharkey replied with left swing on jaw. After a clinch Jeffries sent his left to Sharkey's injured eye and the Irishman's optic began to bleed freely. Tom kept boring in, but Jim met him twice with straight lefts on face. Three times they clinched and broke and each time Sharkey landed a back-handed right on Jim's face. Jim stepped in with a fearful right uppercut under the chin and repeated it twice as they broke from a clinch. Sharkey turned to his manager, O'Rourke and laughed, while Tommy Ryan and other men in Jeffries (corner shouted to him "go on; go on," Jeffries failed to follow his advantage up and the force of these two blows was visible when the bell rang and Sharkey wobbled perceptibly as he went back to his corner.

Twenty-third round-They came together with a rush in the center of the ring and Jeffries shot his right to the chin. They clinched and Tom-forced Jeffries' head—back with his left glove under the chin. When they broke away Jeffries smiled and femted withh his left and they went to a clinch again without anything being done. They exchanged light lefts on the head and both missed lefts for the body. Jim jabbed a straight left to Tom's injured eye and Tom clinched and after the break Jim jabbed his left to the sailor's stomach and forced him across the ring, when they came to a clinch in which Sharkey forced Jim's head back with his elbow under the jaw. Again they came to a chuck from which they had to be broken by the referee, with Sharkey holding. Jim jabbed his left to Tom's face and staggered him. Sharkey clinched and after the bell rang sent his right over to head as the referee was forcing them

Twenty-fourth round-Jeffries was quicker this time and met Sharkey's rush. They clinched and, after the break, Tom sent lns right over to neck. Jeffries stabbed his left lightly to face. Sharkey tried his left, but fell short and received a right smash on ear from Jeffries. Jeffries seemed to be improv ing steadily and, as Tom came in close to him Jim shot right to Tom's chin. Sharkey clinched again and, after they broke, Jon reached the sailor with right swing on ear Sharkey still kept boring in, but Jim met him every time with a left or right hook on the head and these soon made Sharkey groggy Sharkey clinched frequently, but Jim kept pushing him off. Tom rushed back, swinging left and right wildly for head, but tailed t land, and Jim caught him with a right on jaw They were clinched at bell with Jeffries de cidedly the better man. Twenty-fifth round-They shook hands good naturedly. Jeffries lead for head but Sharkey ducked. Again Jeffries lead, but once more Tom was clever and ducked away from him Both swung rights. Tom's were blocked, but Jim's were landed quite frequently. They chinched and in the break Jim hooked left to Tom's ear, the sailor returning with right on body. Tom kept coming to his man, but was met with uppercut on chest and a clinch followed. Jeffries sent his right to head and body with Tom booking three rights bick of head. Tom swung right vicious y for the head, but fell short and Jon hooked left hard to jaw staggering the sailor. In a clinch Tom slipped to the floor, pulling Jim's left glove with him as he fell. The referee picked up the glove and tried to adjust it. In the meanwhile Sharkey tried to get at the Californian. Jeffries broke away from the referee as Sharkey led for him with his right and Jim sent his right over Sharkey's shoulder. The referee then got between them and as he did so the bell rang, end:n the fight. The referee then declared Jeffra best two men in the world, and will now take a long rest, probably nine months or a year. Never again will I fight under the same conditions. The heat from the lights overhead tended to take away a great deal of my steam and the glare from the floor weakened my eyes. My left arm, the one that was injured while training, gave out in the fourth round and I could not use it properly for the rest of the battle, or the result would have been different, for I think I could have punched him out. Sharkey was inconsolable and cried like a child when he went to his quarters, and refused to talk, but Tom O'Ronrke, his manager, expressed the opinion that the sailor should have received the decision. He said that two of Sharkey's ribs were broken and that during the last four rounds Tom's left hand was useless, having been broken on Jeffries' head.

Although the decision was against him, he said Sharkey would not give up, but would seek another match and the next time the result would be different. "But I don't think that this fellow will want to tackle Tom again,' said O'Rourke. "I'll keep after him, though, until he agrees to another meeting or make him crawl."

PECULIAR CONDITIONS REPORTED.

Difficulties Attend the Administration of Justice In Cuba and Porto Rico.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 4.—The difficulties attending the administration of justice in Cuba and Porto Rico are brought out in reports to the judge advocate general of the army, General Liber, whose annual report was made public. Major Dudley, at Havana, stated in the course of a report:

"The opposition to a complete change of the spirit, methods and technicalities of the Spanish law as now maintained, in the system of 'incommunicado' tor example, is especially surprising. But though slow in coming the assertion of such personal rights and liberties as are already enjoyed by Americans under American law will come sooner or later as being essential to a free, self-governing people such as the Cubans desire it

Major Sharpe, acting judge advocate of Porto Rico, reviewed the manifold difficulties in dealing with brigandage, the complex customs relating to marriage and divorce, the crowding of Jails with men, women and children, who literally rot while justice proceeds at snail pace. He said every substantial reform was eagerly received by the people, the opposition coming from the small conservative element. He deprecates the withdrawal of this government and the establishment of a territorial form of government, as some of the Porto Ricon newspapers demanded.

NEEDS A BETTER ARMY.

Berlin Opinions of Lansdowne's State ment Regarding England.

Berlin, Nov. 4.—The statement of the British secretary of state for war. the Marquis of Lansdowne, at the cutlers' feast in Sheffield, England, that the military preparations in the difficulty with the Transvaal could not be kept abreast of the diplomatic negotiations, evoked severe comment on the part of the German press.

The Neuste Nachrichten said:

"This assertion will amaze the world, and especially Germany, for it implies either that the army and diplomacy of Great Britain are unequally balanced or that both are inefficient. For the purpose of comparison we need but recall Germany's preparedness in 1870 and the fact that Count Von Moltke, on the first day of the mobilization, was found reading a novel."

Lord Lansdowne's statement only confirmed the opinion of numerous critics that the British army is no longer an efficient tool for politics on a vast scale.

Perhaps England's experiences in South Africa will suffice to bring home to the national instinct of Britons the necessity for a radical reorganization of not be traced to the kidneys even by the astute physician. If you have doctored your nerves, your stomach, your liver, your heart or other organs, and have not found health, it is safe to say your mistake has been in interpreting the symptoms of disease. Try treating your kidneys. The kidneys are the strainers of the blood. You must depend on them to purity the current that supplies every tissue and organ in the body. They should excrete all waste matter from the system. If they fail to do this perfectly, it is not reason.

able to expect good health. With healthy kidneys, disorder in other organs will be nullified. With diseased kidneys, every bodily organ is soon affected and good health is impossible. Foley's Kidney Cure makes healthy kidneys. The pains of childbirth in women are due to imperfect action in the kidneys—the presence in the blood of urea, which should be excreted, and which would be if the kidneys were right. Most of the other ills peculiar to women are due to the same cause. Every case of irritation, ulceration or similar affection of the organs may be cured by proper attention to the kidneys. Foley's Kidney Cure makes sound kidneys.

Scarlet fever produces an effect on the kidneys similar to that seen on the face, a sort of eruption or rash, and very often is the beginning of Bright's disease, which may not manifest

Foley's Kidney Cure Prevents Bright's disease. The use of injurious minerals or other strong medicines often brings on congestion and irritation of the kidneys, known as Nephritis. Gravel is a common result of kidney disease and is one of the most agonizing of ailments. Chronic irritation or catarrh of the bladder follows these troubles and if neglected will bring added misery and probably death from enlargement of the prostate gland.

Foley's Kidney Cure prevents all kidney troubles. Diabetes may occur at any age, from kidney derangement, and its end is often pulmonary tuberculosis or consumption. In the last stages cataract of both eyes often occurs.

The builder of this castle might have ruined Bavaria had he not have been removed from power, but his work as an artist and an architect endures. There are a hundred thousand American homes more luxurious and more comfortable than this palace, but it stands preeminen'ly as an abode of kings.
